success and everything looked good and went well.

- All members present are asked to sign a get-well card to be given to Jimmy Homea who is currently at Southwest Mississippi Medical Center in McComb being treated for heart problems and kidney dysfunction. He is in Room 327 should any members wish to visit or check on his condition.

Vice President Report: VP Dawn Taylor suggested working up a 2012 calendar as a sales item for fundraising. Each month would feature a photo of an Amite County landmark, principally old house/buildings. The consensus of members present was to proceed with the project.

Secretary Report: Secy. Wayne Anderson reported that the society web site has finally been brought back online after being taken down due to being infected with a virus. Most featured material present on the old site will be added back as time permits.

Treasurer Report: Treasurer Gay Blalock gave a written report. The society account currently stands at $4551.36. Wayne Anderson made a motion to approve the report; Linda Lea seconded. The report was approved without dissention.

LRSH COMMITTEE REPORT: Mrs. Vera Prestidge reported that
- The LRSH had no activity since the November meeting
- There were 42 visitors to the open house with 2 new members joining. Several visitors asked about touring the LRSH and may schedule visits to do so in the future. A thank you was extended to all those that helped with the open house activities, food and merchandise sales.

Old Business: None

New Business: The following were discussed:
- The members were reminded that 2011 begins the Sesquicentennial observance of the Civil War. James Allen Causey asked if the society would be participating in the observance; Pres. Barron indicated that the society would likely participate but in what way has not yet been determined.
- Linda Lea asked if members could try to make photos of historic homes and buildings if the forecasted snow actually happens.
- Oma Gordon announced that she is seeking pictures of historic buildings for a book she is compiling. If anyone has such pictures and would like to offer them, please contact Oma Gordon directly.
- Pres. Barron suggested that members think about items for Heritage Day.

Other Business: Oma Gordon announced that she had made new name tags and would pass them out to all that are present. Members are asked to wear their tags to all society meetings and functions.

The business meeting was adjourned with a closing prayer by James Allen Causey at 10:33 am.
Dr William "Willis" Hugh Germany was born about 1822 in Miss. He died on 21 Jan 1887 at his home at Johnston's Station. (Resolution passed by the Summit Quarterly Conf.) Various references would indicate he was a physician and Methodist preacher. Dr William "Willis" Hugh Germany and (1) Sarah Bickham were married bef 1849 probably in Pike County. It was noted in Source Records from Pike County, Mississippi 1790-1910, by Williams and Conerly - Sarah Bickham born 1831 married 1st Willis Germany a Methodist preacher and 2nd B. A. Bridges. Her parents were James Salisbury and Elizabeth Culp Curry Terry Bickham. Since Sarah married B. A. Bridges second and Dr. Germany was still alive, it is assumed they divorced or parted ways. William "Willis" Hugh Germany and Sarah Bickham had the following two children:

Mary E Germany was born about 1849. Mary E was in Dr. Germany's household in 1860 and 1870 census, but not 1880.
